5. Help us to make The Unschooling Conference even more interesting. Send us one of your favorite questions.

Do you have a question that comes up again and again when you gather with other unschoolers? Or do you have a question for other unschoolers that's been lurking at the back of your mind? Here's your chance to make the conference even more interesting for everyone. We will use participants' questions for activities during the conference. Be creative. You don't have to limit yourself to schoolish topics, in fact, you don't have to limit yourself at all! "What are your favorite art supplies?" "Do you know anything about winter wilderness camping?" "I'm trying to find resources for locating apprenticeships." "Has anyone built their own house out of clay/straw?" "How do I become an Olympic athlete?" Whatever you can come up with, we'll try to include it in one of the activities at the conference. All questions will remain anonymous, unless you identify yourself as the source during the conference.

*We are already looking forward to our 2009 conference!!!!
If you have ideas or suggestions please let us know.*
